Charoen Pokphand and True Groups Organize Monkhood Leaving Ceremony of “True Little Monk : A Wisdom Training Programme for Novices”

Charoen Pokphand Group and True Corporation Plc organized a ceremony that marked the end of a month-long monkhood of 12 novices in “True Little Monk : A Wisdom Training Programme for Novices” at Wat Pah Sai Ngam in Det-Udom district, Ubon Ratchathani province. The project was under the supervision of Abbot Master Phrakhru Nikrotthammaphon (Luang Ta Anek Yasadinno) (middle row – center) and an instructor team of reverend monks. On this occasion, Mrs. Varnnee Chearavanont Ross (middle row – 2nd from left), Chairwoman of the Ceremony, and a member of the Programme’s Advisory Committee, as well as the founder and Director of Concordian International School, together with the management led by Mr. Vichaow Rakphongphairoj (middle row – 2nd from right), President (Co) of True Corporation Plc, as well as sponsors from public and private organizations attended the event. On this remarkable day, the 12 novice monks from various nationalities and cultures gave their sermons on the subject of “Compassion & Kindness : Love – Live – Love – Let go” to all participants and viewers both in Thailand and across the world.
