KTC hands over 2 million baht donation money to Ramathibodi Hospital in support of special CRRT machine purchases specifically for COVID-19 patients. Cardmembers nationwide may redeem points to participate in donation efforts.

KTC hands over 2 million baht donation money to Ramathibodi Hospital in support of special CRRT machine purchases specifically for COVID-19 patients. Cardmembers nationwide may redeem points to participate in donation efforts.

Mr. Rathian Srimongkol (Center), President & Chief Executive Officer, “KTC” or Krungthai Card Public Company Limited, hands over 2 million Baht into “COVID-19 Transmission Prevention and Aid” special fund, which was established by the Faculty of Medicine Ramathibodi and Ramathibodi Foundation in support of the purchase of special Continuous Renal Replacement Therapy machines (CRRT) specifically for COVID-19 patients. Besides extracorporeal membrane oxygenation and respirator devices, the CRRT is an important medical device necessary to prevent against and combat the spread of the COVID-19 virus that is rapidly spreading. The event was presided over by Piyamitr Sritara, M.D, FRCP, FACP (Right), Professor of Medicine, Dean, President, The Executive Committee of Ramathibodi Foundation, and Dr. Pairoj Boonkongchuen (Left), Director of Ramathibodi Chakri Naruebodindra Hospital, today (March 26, 2020) at Office of the Dean, Administrative Building, Ramathibodi Hospital.

Moreover, KTC is accepting donations towards the Faculty of Medicine Ramathibodi Hospital’s “COVID-19 Transmission Prevention and Aid” special fund. KTC credit cardmembers nationwide may redeem every 1,000 KTC FOREVER points for 100 Baht donation money. Donations can be made through three channels: KTC Phone 02 123 5000 and press 0 (zero), “KTC Mobile” application or on www.ktc.co.th/online from March 26, 2020 onwards. KTC will help support 50 Baht on top of every donations valued at 100 Baht. These donations may also be used for tax deduction purposes.