MOUTHWATERING MUD CRABS ZESTY CHILI SEASONAL TASTES' FAMILY-FILLED SUNDAY LUNCH THROUGHOUT JANUARY AND FEBRUARY

That dish so craved by many – steamed mud crabs subtly seasoned with chili – is starring on the Family-Filled Sunday Lunch buffet line at Seasonal Tastes, The Westin Grande Sukhumvit, Bangkok, this January and February. And everything else is co-starring.

Such is the culinary charisma of these delectable decapod crustaceans. Don't be misled by their name which merely references the nutrient-rich ecosystems they try to hide in. Mud crab flesh, once painstakingly recovered from its seriously hard shell, seasoned and steamed, is a taste bud tantalizing treat of the first order. And every subsequent order.

Seasonal Tastes' interactive kitchen keeps the crabs coming, so every ocean-fresh morsel is fresh on the plate and melts in your mouth.

But that's just for starters. Among the most indulgent all-you-can-eat experiences in Bangkok, Family-Filled Sunday Lunch bursts with live stations where specialist chefs prepare multi-ethnic cuisines a la minute.

Particularly enticing are the fresh seafood selections, the Mediterranean corner with its brightly burning pizza oven, the Asian Corner, including Thai classics, and the Japanese corner under the wing of The Westin Grande Sukhumvit, Bangkok's award-winning Kisso Japanese Restaurant. Other must-haves range abundant fresh salads and divine desserts and a full-scale surf n turf grill, roast, and oven-baked counter.

And dining is not the only diversion. While grown-ups relax and refuel, children delight in dishes catered especially for them and Westin Kids Club® activities keep them thoroughly enthralled. Moreover, children age 0-5 years eat free, children age 6-12 years are charged at half-price (50%), and those age 13 years up are charged as adults.

Make gorging on mud crab a family affair at a venue that could hardly be more convenient. After all, it's located on the 7th floor of The Westin Grande Sukhumvit, Bangkok, just steps from the BTS Asok-MRT Sukhumvit interchange.

Mouth-watering Mud Crabs Family-Filled Sunday Lunch Buffet is served every Sunday from 12:00 to 15:00 hrs.

Priced THB 1,850++ per person including free-flow soft drinks, coffee and tea.

 Marriott Loyalty Program Members enjoy discounts based on their membership level.

Bookings through our online store discount up to 50% on food.