4th Annual Blood Donation at Amari Pattaya

The management and team members of Amari Pattaya led by Richard Gamlin, resident manager (Centre), together with The Thai Red Cross Society from Queen Savang Vadhana Memorial Hospital, recently organized its blood donation activity at Amari Pattaya. A total of 22,350 cc of blood was collected from 55 donors, including team members and guests. With the aim to help save hospital patients and accident victims in various regions nationwide, the donated blood was promptly delivered to The Thai Red Cross Society to help patients and people in need.
