5 Royal Cliff Restaurants Earn Coveted Wine Spectator Restaurant Awards for the 12th Year

Pattaya, Thailand – Five exceptional restaurants of the Royal Cliff Hotels Group have once again been recognized for its outstanding wine program in Wine Spectator's 2018 Restaurant Wine List Awards. A recipient of Wine Spectator's "Best of Award of Excellence 2018" for the 12th consecutive year, Caprice –A Taste of Riviera, Huang Chao – Royal Cantonese Cuisine, Larn Thong –Authentic Thai Traditions, Rossini –The Godfather's Favourite and the Royal Grill Room & Wine Cellar – Excellence & Heritage, continue to be honored as a top destination for wine lovers.

The superb dining experience and exceptional wine selection offered in these award-winning restaurants have consequently achieved another impressive milestone for Royal Cliff's talented culinary team. Wine Spectator's "Best of Award of Excellence" began recognizing the world's best wine lists in 1981 and awards restaurants which offer extensive selections of fine wine with significant vintage depth and excellent breadth across multiple regions.

"This year's class of restaurants is one of the most impressive and innovative ever," said Marvin R. Shanken, Editor and Publisher of Wine Spectator. "Their wine lists keep improving, because wine lovers are eager to explore and learn. The goal of our Restaurant Awards is to support restaurant wine programs and bring them to diners' attention through our outreach through print, digital and social media. Wine Spectator salutes every restaurant honored in the 2018 Restaurant Awards."
