All-star teams unveil artworks supporting Namjai for Refugees campaign

BANGKOK, Thailand– Eight celebrities recently unveiled their inspired artistic endeavors to enthusiastic supporters in the latest chapter of the UN Refugee Agency (UNHCR) Namjai for Refugees campaign. The artwork showcase was part of a three-day UNHCR festival held on the first floor of Bangkok's Siam Centre. From left; singer Saharat "Kong" Sangkapricha; actress/model Praya "Pu" Lundberg; Ruvendrini Menikdiwela, UNHCR Representative in Thailand; bestselling songwriter Jakrawut "Van" Sawangpol; renowned sitcom director Piyakarn "Mook" Budprasert; talented illustrator Pattarida "Pang" Prasarnthong".