

Almsgiving ceremony on the occasion of Her Majesty Queen Sirikit's birthday

Pattaya, Thailand - 10 August 2018 - The General Manager of Dusit Thani Pattaya, Mr Neoh Kean Boon, led the staff and management team to perform alms-giving to nine monks from Djittabhawan Temple in front of the hotel's garden on the occasion of Mother's Day as well as in honour of Her Majesty Queen Sirikit's birthday. Her Majesty, queen consort of His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej, also known as King Rama IX, who was the world's longest-reigning head of state, is the world's longest-serving consort. The team wore light blue shirts, as light blue is the heraldic colour of Her Majesty Queen Sirikit.
