Amara Bangkok Unveils Meeting Packages Available until December 2018

Amara Bangkok introduces its meeting packages, available from now until 31 December 2018, showcasing the hotel's upscale event facilities, accommodation and food and beverage offerings.

Catering to all kinds of occasions, from social events and corporate meetings to exclusive private functions, Amara Bangkok's meetings and conference facilities, located on level eight, offer versatile spaces for a customisable experience. The 282-sqm Tanjong Pagar Grand Ballroom and Surawong 1 & 2 (two breakout rooms) boast wall-to-wall windows with natural daylight and awe-inspiring city views.

Guests can choose from the following offers:

Full-Day Meeting Package [THB 1,500++ per person]
Half-Day Meeting Package [THB 1,200++ per person]
Coffee Break [THB 700++ per person]

For both half-day and full-day meeting packages, guests will receive an arrival coffee break, three snack items and one LIVE cooking station, unlimited freshly brewed coffee, tea, herbal drinks, cookies, biscotti and signature Bangrak sweets, international lunch buffet, meeting service application and complimentary high-speed WIFI. Terms and conditions may apply at the hotels discretion.

Facilities in our chic meeting rooms include the latest state-of-the-art audio-visual equipment from microphones and LCD projector, and all-inclusive amenities such as pens, notepads and flip charts.

A team of dedicated events specialists will take care of all the important details and the talented chefs will present a selection of tempting cuisine sourced locally and from around the globe.

The hotel's comprehensive meeting facilities and all-in package provide an option for corporate and MICE organizers at Surawong Road, one of Bangkok's most colourful districts neighbouring Silom Road CBD, popular night markets and shopping malls, a stroll from BTS Sky Train and MRT stations and convenient for expressway connections to the airport and major exhibition and convention centres.

Amara Bangkok offers 250 tastefully appointed guestrooms designed for the discerning traveller, with contemporary furnishings in soothing tones, boasting modern conveniences and luxurious bathrooms featuring rain showers and premium bath amenities. Thai art pieces feature in every guest room and hotel common spaces.

The hotel offers innovative dining concepts, including signature Singaporean and authentic Thai cuisine at all-day restaurant Element, fashionable rooftop nightspot AkaAza which offers spectacular views, signature cocktails at The Bar and specialty coffee at Barista, as well as the Minibar Boutique for guests' convenience. The sky gym and sky pool allow guests to reenergise after a busy day and offer magnificent city views.
