

Amari Watergate Bangkok Welcomes Prime Minister of Tonga

Ms. Anna Rohm (right), hotel manager of Amari Watergate Bangkok, recently welcomed Mr. Samiuela 'Akilisi Pōhiva (left), Prime Minister of Tonga, upon his arrival at Amari Watergate Bangkok to participate in The 4th Thailand-Pacific Island Countries Forum (TPIF) and discuss the topic, "Putting Ideas into Action Towards Sustainable Development". The purpose of this forum is to find ways to develop closer partnerships between Thailand and the Pacific Island Countries while focusing on expanding cooperation in related sections for the sustainable development of the Pacific Island Countries. High-level executives and associated officers from the Pacific Island Countries also attended the forum.