“An online-MOU signing between The Beaumont Partnership Foundation and Dusit Thani College”

Dusit Thani College (DTC), Thailand’s premier hospitality education institution regulated by the Higher Education Commission (OHEC) under the Ministry of Education (MOE) of the Kingdom of Thailand, and a subsidiary of Dusit International, together with The Beaumont Partnership Foundation (TBPF) recently held an “Online MOU Signing Ceremony” between the two organizations to continue cooperation in all support and agreement.

Even though the challenges of the pandemic are still with us, Dusit Thani College led by Ms. Frouke Gerbens, Rector and The Beaumont Partnership Foundation led by Mr. Timothy John Beaumont, CEO and Director of the foundation proceeded with their intention to establish the success of this “Memorandum of Understanding (MOU)”. The main objectives of this agreement are to foster the cooperation in education of both parties including community service, the preservation of Thai arts and culture, and to promote hospitality education and research for the benefit of the community.

This MOU forms the framework of cooperation between the two organizations to identify and achieve shared goals and objectives, and to facilitate and develop a genuine and mutually beneficial relationship. DTC and TBPF will encourage discussion and implementation in various activities ranking from exchange of faculty members and trainers, exchange of students, curriculum development, joint research programs, and joint student projects and community service activities.

The Beaumont Partnership Foundation (TBPF) is a registered charity in the Kingdom of Thailand and the proud sponsor of the Ruam Pattana School in Chaiyaphum province, which operates under a license issued by the Thai Ministry of Education (MOE)

For more information, please contact Public Relations Office on +66 (0) 2361 7811-3 or e-mail pr.pr@dtc.ac.th or visit www.dtc.ac.th