Anantara Golden Triangle Elephant Camp & Resort Appoints Anne Lewinski as Director of Sales and Marketing

Chiang Rai, Thailand: June 12th, 2015 – Anantara Golden Triangle Elephant Camp & Resort announced the appointment of Anne S. Lewinski as Director of Sales & Marketing. In this role, Lewinski will oversee all aspects of marketing, sales plans and strategies.

Lewinski joins Anantara Golden Triangle Elephant Camp & Resort from Pullman Phuket Arcadia where she was Sales and Marketing Consultant, acting as Director of Sales and Marketing.

Prior to this position, Lewinski worked as sales and marketing consultant for various hotels, including Sofitel Hotels China as Regional Director of Sales, Mekong Cruises Laos, Novotel Bangkok Impact and Langham Samui. She also gained experience as full time Director of Sales and Marketing at several five-star hotels including The Sukhothai Bangkok, Amanresorts area role for China, India, Sri Lanka and Starwood Hotels, Sydney.

“We are delighted to welcome Anne to the team. Her exceptional experience in the hospitality industry is valuable to us and we believe that she will continue to make Anantara Golden Triangle Elephant Camp & Resort a preferred resort for discerning travelers,” says Christian Zunk, General Manager of Anantara Golden Triangle Elephant Camp & Resort.

Tucked into 160 acres of ancient jungle in Northern Thailand overlooking the convergence of two rivers and three countries, Thailand, Laos and Myanmar, Anantara Golden Triangle Elephant Camp & Resort offers unforgettable adventures with indulgent all-inclusive benefits, featuring gourmet dining and enriching daily activities. The resort’s 72 rooms and suites feature a private balcony with a built-in sofa and three country views.

Signature experiences include mahout training, treks and bath time at the resort’s famed onsite Elephant Camp, as well as spa journeys, Thai cooking classes and a three country tour. Explore the Mekong by longtail boat, the Opium Museum and ancient Lanna capital. Enjoy a breathtaking infinity pool and dine on northern Thai specialties and fine international cuisine all with exceptional views.
