Avani+ Hua Hin Resort Invites Families to Wake Up to ‘Breakfast in Wonderland’

Just in time for Thailand’s school holidays, Avani+ Hua Hin Resort’s (www.avanihotels.com/hua-hin) new ‘Family Time’ stay benefit combines storytelling, adventure and precious time gathered around the breakfast table.

Valid for all room, suite and villa stays on the 24th and 25th October 2020, each booking will receive complimentary access to the themed breakfast inviting guests to venture through the tropical beaches of “Pirates of the Caribbean”, the winter heaven of “Frozen” and the decadent sweet treats of “Charlie and The Chocolate Factory”.

As the ballroom space is magically transformed into a Wonderland complete with live culinary stations, balloon and makeup artists, magicians and costumed characters, parents can indulge in a quiet moment with an AvaniKids gaming pop-up keeping the little ones busy long after breakfast. On the culinary side, decadent chocolate treats of Willy Wonka, a Frozen-inspired selection of flavoured yoghurt mousses and sorbets and treasure chests overflowing with delightful flavours will appeal to both young and young at heart.

Families with two children will appreciate the extra space afforded by the 72-sqm suites, some with direct pool access, and modern villas complete with a private pool, sun loungers, daybeds and al fresco dining area. An easy 2.5-hour drive from downtown Bangkok, the family-friendly Avani+ Hua Hin Resort boasts two swimming pools and a scenic lake, oceanfront dining, sprawling tropical gardens and an AvaniKids’ club with a dedicated kids pool.

Price starting from THB 9,643++ (or starting from THB 6,643++ under “Rao Tiew Duay Kan” (We Travel Together) campaign.
