

Bawarchi Chidlom Sends Guest on a Culinary Journey for Valentine's Day

Bangkok, Thailand -Let this year's Valentine's Day be one to remember with a special culinary experience at Bawarchi Indian Restaurant. With a delightful six-course set dinner menu, Bangkok's best Indian fine dining venue offers couples the chance to spend a romantic evening while relishing a variety of the restaurant's most popular dishes and Indian breads.

For many couples, Valentine's Day is meant for sharing romantic moments and indulging in delicious delicacies. With its special Valentine's Day menu, Bawarchi is the place where guests can do exactly that. The menu will be available from February 13 - 19, 2017 and features an array of the restaurant's best dishes, sending couples off on a gastronomic journey around the Indian subcontinent. The soft candlelight and gentle background music will let guests forget the rest of the world during this special time.

"Our carefully curated six-course menu is designed to give couples both a culinary and cultural experience they can share and remember. The delicious array of dishes we have chosen for this menu highlights the great variety Indian cuisine has to offer and the romantic setting here at Bawarchi Chidlom gives couples a chance to spend this day in a special way," says Bawarchi Group Vice President Vinay Chawla.

To ensure all palates are pleased, Bawarchi's chefs have selected the restaurant's finest Bawarchi Chidlom Sends Guest on a Culinary Journey for Valentine's Day preparations, including the much-loved Malabar Machi, a creamy Shahi Malai Kofta, and to end the dinner on a high, a sumptuous Gajar Ka Halwa as dessert, just to name a few. As always, there will be a vegetarian and non-vegetarian version of this special menu. Also, dishes can be prepared gluten-free upon request. To add another special note, guests have the option to pair their dinner with a specially selected glass of wine for each course.

"Here at Bawarchi Chidlom, we want to do more than just serve our guests delicious food. We want them to have a special moment together and create wonderful memories they can look back on fondly. With this year's wonderful Valentine's Day menu, romantic atmosphere and attentive service I am sure we can make that happen," explains Mr. Chawla.

The menu is priced at THB 1600 ++ excluding wine, including wine pairing the price will come to THB 2600 ++.
