

Bloomberg Philanthropies support Bangkok Road Safety Journalism Fellowship seminar to find out better road safety solutions

On 29th June 2017, Global Health Advocacy Incubator (GHAI) with the support of Bloomberg Philanthropies Initiative for Global Road Safety (BIGRS) hosted Bangkok Road Safety Journalism Fellowship Program 2017. Joining the seminar were representatives from government sector such as Traffic and Transportation Department, BMA, representatives from Traffic Police Division, and representatives from road safety related organizations such as ThaiRoads Foundation, Academic Centre for Road Safety, Don't Drive Drunk Foundation, AIP Foundation, Road Accident Victims Protection, together with leading journalists, sitting together to share their ideas about solutions to improve better road safety, openly discuss on road safety issues and best practices on road safety news presenting.