Celebrate Loy Krathong at Chatrium Hotel Riverside Bangkok’s River Barge Restaurant and Pier 28

Every year at the full moon marking the end of the rainy season, Thai people celebrate the festival of Loy Krathong. The krathong are covered with flowers, a candle and incense, and floated down the river to send away past negativity and to give thanks for the rains and the blessings of the river. Come join us as the full moon fills the night sky above the Chao Phraya River for a bountiful Thai and barbeque buffet, Thai dancing shows, traditional live music and a fireworks display over the river! We will present you with your own krathong to send down the river with a special wish or a prayer for yourself and your loved ones.

Come celebrate Loy Krathong on Thursday, 22 November 2018, at the River Barge Restaurant and Pier 28, Chatrium Hotel Riverside Bangkok, at THB 2,999 net for adults and THB 1,499 net for children including complimentary krathong. Free-flow beverages are THB 800 net (non-alcoholic), or THB 1,450 net including alcoholic, juices and soft drinks.
