

CELEBRATE LOY KRATHONG Experience An Authentic Thai Tradition At The Siam

The Siam invites you to celebrate a traditional Loy Krathong along the River of Kings in Bangkok's Historical Old Town on Wednesday, 25 November, 2015.

Float your wishes for the future on your own personal handmade Krathong from The Siam's private pier, while we indulge you for an evening of festivities, food and live music.

Enjoy the atmosphere of a Traditional Thai Market Festival featuring authentic cuisine prepared at live cooking stations along the riverfront and be magically transported to a bygone era.

This exclusive event is limited to a fortunate few who wish to participate in a singular Thai experience from within the serenity of The Siam, in Bangkok's royal Dusit district.

The Siam Loy Krathong evening starts from 6.00pm and includes:

- Traditional Thai Market Festival
- Thai herbal drinks and house wines
- Krathong making workshop

THB 5,500++ per person

A full non-refundable pre-payment is required to make a reservation. Guests making a pre-paid booking before 15 November receive a special 10% discount privilege. Please book in advance to use The Siam's complimentary shuttle boat service.

To reserve your place for The Siam's exclusive Loy Krathong celebration, please call +66 (0)2 206 6999 or e-mail info@thesiamhotel.com.
