Celebrate Songkran in true traditional style at Anantara Golden Triangle Elephant Camp & Resort

Full of rituals and respect, Thailand's most celebrated festival is an experience to savour. See in the New Year with true Thai spirit at Anantara Golden Triangle with drum and street parades, monk blessings, temple visits and a traditional northern style Khantoke dinner.

Monday 13th April
11:00 am Long-drum parade around the resort grounds with Buddha Replica statues placed for traditional bathing ceremonies
6:00 pm Northern Khantoke dinner at Sala Mae Nam
THB 1,800++ per person including free flow Thai wine

Tuesday 14th April
1:00 pm Sand pagoda presentation to nine temples in Chiang Saen

Wednesday 15th April
9:00 am Blessing at the spirit houses, built to honour the spirits of the land
10:30 am Monk blessing ceremony at the Elephant Bar

Saturday 18th April
1:00 pm Chiang Saen street parade
Be prepared to get wet as the streets come alive with locals celebrating the New Year with the customary throwing of water

*Price is per person and subject to a 10% service charge and applicable government tax.

For more information and reservations, please contact:
Tel: +66 (0) 53 784 084 email: goldentriangle@anantara.com website: anantara.com