Celebrate Valentine’s Day by showing appreciation for the people you love or adore on rooftop, pleasingly with an acoustic songs and keep a romantic moment in striking atmosphere and spectacular views that service for special day.

Once in a year with the sweetest and the most romantic festival, Valentine’s Day, celebrate the season of love and care at Centara Watergate Pavillion Hotel Bangkok with the important person. Relish the significant moment with our most extraordinary western 4 courses dining by our executive chef from T20, the gorgeous open-air rooftop located on 20th floor with exotic lighting and impressive city view. Not only the view and live musical performance are so stunning, the dishes are also new experience at very first taste.

From the savory appetizer, Salmon tartar with crispy bread, sour cream and tomato foam and Green pea soup with tiger prawn and rosemary. For the main courses, there are two optional savory dishes. First is Pan fried sea bass fillet with scallop and saffron sauce. Second is Braised beef tenderloin with aromatic herbs, soft polenta and mushrooms.

Moreover, to fulfill this perfect night even more, French rose vanilla tea and passion fruit mousse with milk chocolate heart will end the Valentine’s special date night beautifully.

Valentine’s dining course is available only on Friday 14th February 2020, at the rooftop on 20th floor. Priced at THB 2,999 net per couple (including 2 glasses of sparkling cocktails) and THB 4,999 net per couple (including massage for 2 person, 1 hour per person within February 2020).
