CHINESE NEW YEAR CAKE “NIAN GAO”, Double Fish Glutinous Rice Cake THB 490 NET per box (including 2 fish)

Pick up you “Nian Gao”, better known throughout the world as Chinese New Year Cake, from Zing Bakery (located on the ground floor of Centara Grand at CentralWorld) before the all gone!
This sweet and gluttonous cake is traditionally eaten across China and other parts of Asia this time of year to celebrate the New Year. This year, it’s the “Chinese Year of the Rat” – and falls on 25 January 2020.
Nian gao is expertly made but uses rather simple ingredients, including rice flour, egg, water and quite a lot of sugar. It’s then normally stored in the fridge to give it extra texture during the days leading up to Chinese New Year, and then lightly fried before eating.
Now, you can purchase our “Double Fish Nian Gao Cake” from Zing Bakery for THB 490 NET per box – a great gift for friends, family or to share in the office to bring luck and prosperity into the new year.
