DBS emphasises its Enhanced British Curriculum

DBS Denla British School emphasises its strength of the UK independent school curriculum model, which enhances academic study with encouragement of all-round skills, and introduces its special Covid-19 promotions, giving the opportunity for students to experience the best curriculum in the world.

DBS's Enhanced British Curriculumis recognised as the best curriculum in the world. It focuses on a comprehensive education to develop the all-round competency of the students in both academics and life skills, thus developing the students to grow up into happy, well-qualified individuals, reflecting the "Nurturing Global Leaders" vision.

Mr. Mark McVeigh, DBS Principal said, "The school has now finalised the schedule for the 2020-2021 academic year starting on 31st August. We are fully prepared for the New Normal conditions, after adopting online teaching and learning in the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic. We will guarantee the highest level of safety, with strict hygiene measures in place."

"In terms of promoting academic excellence, we give full attention to all of our students. We have a strict selection process to employ native UK teachers. The whole process of recruitment takes up to a year, and we guarantee that all of our teaching staff possess the qualifications and experience relevant to the subjects being taught."

DBS encourages its students to acquire new skills and articulate new ideas regularly through activities inside and outside the classroom in our curriculum system called the Extended Day. The co-curricular activities are specially provided to allow students the opportunities to try new experiences and compel them to discover their potential. According to World Health Organization (WHO) recommendations, children should have at least 60 minutes of playtime and activities per day to enhance their physical and learning development.

Moreover, DBS also cultivate skills for students to develop leadership and entrepreneurship for the future, which includes problem solving skills, decision making, critical thinking, and creativity, as a stepping stone towards becoming a global leader.

DBS provides opportunities for prospective parents to enrol their children for the 2020-2021 academic year with three attractive promotions; 1) 10% discount for group enrolment, 2) free assessment test, worth 5,000 baht, and 3) 10% discount on Summer School fees.
