ELEVEN HOTEL BANGKOK CELEBRATES ITS GRAND OPENING PARTY

Newly-opened hotel on Sukhumvit 11, “Eleven Hotel Bangkok” hosted its grand opening party under the theme “Candlelight Beach” on 12 December 2019. The hotel has now been operating for 4 months and 11 days since 1 August 2019.
Over a hundred of guests attended and enjoyed live music, complimentary gifts, food and refreshments, and grand prizes such as accommodation and dinning vouchers.
Upon guest arrival, they received a warm welcome from General Manager, Khun Thitichai Intarasirisawat, the management team, and hotel associates. Guests were invited to the party venue located on the 9th fl. rooftop Thai Me Up Restaurant & Bar.
The venue was transformed into a beach where it was decorated with sand, candles, lightbulbs, and beach-related objects. “Candlelight Beach” was a key theme of the event as it was inspired by the hotel’s interior design which represents lush aquatic plants, sea, and water droplets.
Thai and International cuisine were meticulously prepared by the hotel’s talented 26-year old sous chef who has expertise in authentic and fusion Thai food. As well, the hotel surprised the guests with a lucky draw activity and a huge number of prizes with a total value of over THB 60,000.
The grand opening party event ended magnificently with smiles and happiness from guests, hotel management and associates. The hotel has been operating and serving every guests with its best effort to provide the “leave the ordinary behind” service to all guests from around the world. Eleven Hotel Bangkok is committed to continue providing its quality service to deliver the best stay experience for hotel guests.
