

Explore Krabi with Sustainable Tourism and Discover a Hidden Community

Bangkok, Thailand, January 5th 2018 - Local Alike, a Thailand-based social enterprise dedicated to sustainable tourism development or “community-based tourism” has joined hands with EverydayKrabi to create a trip especially designed for those who love Krabi, Southern Thailand’s most beautiful beach destination.

On top of an invigorating beach experience, travellers will be astounded by how the local sea gypsies have developed their hometown, creating a sense of warmth within the community.

To the new generation of community-based tourism lovers, Local Alike invites travellers to escape the hectic city, enjoy fresh air and unwind in Krabi. Here, one will fall in love with the village way of life, feast on scrumptious southern dishes and fresh seafood at Koh Klang Village and enjoy the panoramic view and fairy-tale scenery at the tip of Laem Sak Cape.

Explore the cultural diversity of Laem Sak comprising of Buddhist, Muslim and Chinese communities who have lived together in harmony for generations. Dress up in the traditional Baba-Nyonya clothing and then enjoy a moonlit dinner or watch the gorgeous sunrise from the ocean sand ridge, selected as one of Thailand’s seven best tourist attractions in 2016.

Choose from five fantastic packages:

1. Krabi, Once Again and still just as romantic.
