Extravagant Bangkok Easter Sunday Brunch

Twenty-Seven Bites Brasserie hosts Radisson BLU Plaza Bangkok's family-friendly Easter Sunday Brunch Extravaganza

On Sunday 16th April 2017, Twenty-Seven Bites Brasserie, at the Radisson BLU Plaza Bangkok, will be hosting an extravagant Easter Sunday Brunch, with something special for the whole family.

On Easter Sunday, 16th April 2017, the Radisson BLU Plaza's Twenty-Seven Bites Brasserie will be a veritable Easter haven, in the heart of Bangkok. From 12:00 to 15:30hrs, this restaurant will transform into an Easter wonderland, with delectable eats and fun treats for the whole family. As the Twenty-Seven Bites Brasserie hosts their extravagant Easter Sunday Brunch buffet spread, guests will dine on local and international cuisine, with popular western Easter sweet and savoury delights, and all the brunch favourites.

To entertain the little ones, while the adults enjoy free-flow drinks, a special kids' corner will come complete with face painting, Easter egg decorating, video games and the screening of an Easter themed movie. Also on hand will be an Easter clown and balloon bender, creating hats and props to wear and take away. Live music by Max will set the mood, until a visit from the Easter bunny, bearing complimentary Easter eggs for all, ensures everyone leaves with a smile and a chocolate egg.

Twenty-Seven Bites Brasserie's Easter Sunday Brunch is priced at THB 1,890++, including free-flow soft drinks, or THB 2,290++ for the adults' free-flow drinks package. There's no better family-friendly way to indulge this Easter Sunday.
