Gracy shared the pathway of her success story to become the winner of “The Voice Kids Thailand 2020”.

ASTV News1 featured the interview of Pattanan Amnajcharoenying (Gracy); a student in Year 8 and Music Scholar at Regent’s International School Bangkok. Gracy shared the pathway of her success story to become the winner of “The Voice Kids Thailand 2020”.

Behind the success story, she has earned full support from her family and Regent’s International School Bangkok. Gracy said that Regent’s is like her second home which helps her to be courageous and to follow her dreams from her first day in school (Year 1) until today. This is Gracy’s eigth year at Regent’s.

After entering the contest, she didn’t expect to be the winner but just wanted to do what she loves. She kept practicing singing very hard with advice from coaches and teachers. Finally, she is very proud and happy winning this very prestigious award which has been achieved through her own effort and ability but also with the encouragement and support of all those around her.
