Hilton Sukhumvit Bangkok introduces “Culinary Journey through India”

Scalini restaurant at the Hilton Bangkok Sukhumvit is making a brief culinary diversion on 2 – 4 October. First-rate guest chefs from India will be crafting authentic speciality dishes each evening from different regions of the country for this special three-day event.

To launch the promotion on Tuesday 2 October an Indian musical ensemble, comprising tabla, sitar and harmonium, will be playing a selection of classic instrumental tunes.

These authentic dishes from India are available between 6 -10 pm with à la carte prices starting at just THB 180++. Set menu prices start at THB 999++. Popular vegetarian dishes from India are also available.
