Kasetsart University and the Tourism Authority of Thailand recently held a “Zip Line Standard” meeting at Mercure Pattaya Hotel

On the 29th November 2016 Kasetsart University and the Tourism Authority of Thailand held a “Zip Line Standard” meeting at Mercure Pattaya Hotel to set up and prepare local zip line operators to meet international standards.

Nowadays zip lining is fast becoming a top tourist activity, especially with visitors to Thailand. Thailand has many zip line operators and also in the Pattaya region which is why this meeting was initiated, as safety and security is the No.1 priority to prevent accidents and injuries for participants and instructors alike by following internationally recognized rules and regulations.
