

KFC celebrates Colonel Sanders' Birthday giving out nationwide over 7,000 buckets to those born on 9/9 only

KFC celebrates Colonel Sanders' Birthday giving out nationwide over 7,000 buckets to those born on 9/9 only

This Sunday, 9th September is Colonel Sanders' Birthday, he is the founder of a famous and unique fast food chicken restaurant chain, Kentucky Fried Chicken (KFC). KFC Thailand thus celebrates his birthday by giving out free chicken buckets to the first 11 people who were born on the same date as him. This promotion is applied nationwide at all KFC branches. By showing your personal identification to the cashier, instantly receive 9-piece chicken bucket. It is a first come first serve, limited of only 11 buckets per branch, reflecting secret recipe of KFC with 11 types of spices marinated, with a total of 7,150 buckets or over 64,000 pieces of chicken will be given out. Colonel Sanders had spent his entire life to discover and improve the recipe for his fried chicken until it became the famous KFC Fried Chicken today which everyone around the World falls in love with. Why wouldn't you make an effort on your birthday to receive this free bucket to enjoy? For more information visit: facebook.com/kfcth/