

KKday, a leading E-commerce travel platform in Asia has officially launched in Thailand

Bangkok, March 14th, 2017: KKday, a leading Taiwan-headquartered E-commerce travel platform offering localized travel across the globe officially launched in Thailand today, bringing unique and authentic tour experiences abroad to Thai tourists looking to travel independently and explore other cities around the world through organized excursions.

Photo shows from left to right: Pumin Yuvacharuskul, Co-Founder & CEO Thailand, Eatigo (Thailand), Penpa-nga Suddhimondala, VP, Head of Loyalty, Postpaid, Market Group, DTAC and Ming Chen, Founder and CEO of KKday.

#####

About KKday

Launched in 2014 and headquartered in Taiwan, KKday is the leading travel experience e-commerce platform that connects users to local tours from all over the world. KKday has more than 6000 worldwide travel activities from our professional providers and unique local experts in more than 53 countries. We believe that a unique and unforgettable travel experience tailored to your needs and wants is simply just a click away.

For further media enquiries, please contact:

Napaporn Sartjumroen (Jan) 099-2584428 at bdsuccess@brandnow.asia

Kachain Saengsuk (Chain) 091-8589912 at event@brandnow.asia

Panuch Suwanthada (Fai) 089-0646352 at info@brandnow.asia

Kittima Sethi (Tinny) 081-8262399 at kittima@brandnow.asia