

Kohaku Japanese Restaurant Receives 30 5-Bubble Reviews from TripAdvisor

Chatrium Hotel Royal Lake Yangon is delighted to announce that our Kohaku Japanese Restaurant has recently received the best reviews possible on the world's largest travel website. We are thrilled to learn that our customers are so satisfied with the impeccable service and delectable cuisine available at our authentic Japanese dining venue that 30 of them have awarded us the maximum '5-Bubble' review on the TripAdvisor website, which contains millions of unbiased traveler reviews.

TripAdvisor is an American travel and restaurant website company that shows hotel and restaurant reviews direct from clients. It is the largest travel website in the world, with more than 300 million reviewers and over 600 million reviews. The Bubble rating is a summary of our ratings from guests who reviewed us and is displayed on a 1-5 scale, where 5 is excellent. So, for Kohaku Japanese Restaurant to get 30 5-Bubble reviews is a tremendous achievement, and one which we are extremely proud of.

Commenting on this excellent accomplishment, Chatrium Hotel Royal Lake Yangon's General Manager Ms. May Myat Mon Win said, "We wish to take this opportunity to sincerely thank our great team for their hard work and our regular patrons for their continued support."

Regarded as one of the best Japanese restaurants in Yangon, Kohaku Japanese Restaurant provides an unrivalled Japanese fine dining experience with either an expansive À La Carte menu or buffet selection. Taste the authentic flavours of Japan and treat your taste buds to exquisite sushi, sashimi and many more delicious delights such as shabu hotpot, tempura and a wide variety of dreamy desserts. For private parties and gatherings, private rooms offer beautiful views of the tropical pool and Asian-inspired gardens.

For reservations or further information, please call 95 1 544500 ext. 6231 or email to fb.chry@chatrium.com