

KTC hands over Bags of Happiness to the Watthana District Office to help the community combat the COVID-19 virus.

Mr. Chutidej Chayuti (center to the right), Chief Financial Officer - Corporate Finance, "KTC" or Krungthai Card Public Company Limited, hands over Bags of Happiness containing consumer products necessary for living including rice, water, milk, chilli paste, instant noodles, vegetable oil, canned food, miscellaneous goods and sanitary masks, which have been collected from a joint effort between KTC's executives and employees, to alleviate the living conditions of people living in 17 local Watthana communities that have been affected by the spread of the COVID-19 virus. The event was recently presided by Mr. Suchai Sakulrungruangchai (center to the left), Director of Watthana District, along with the board of directors of the Watthana District at Watthana District Office.