About Dusit Thani Bangkok

Dusit Thani Bangkok is the flagship hotel of Dusit International, one of Thailand's foremost hotel and property development companies. The five-star luxury hotel comprises 517 rooms and is located next to the BTS Skytrain and MRT underground public transportation services, opposite Lumpini Park, in the heart of Bangkok. Founded by Thanpuying Chanut Piyaoui, Dusit Thani Bangkok was the city's tallest edifice and largest hotel when it first opened in 1970. The hotel is renowned for its gracious hospitality inspired by authentic Thai values, which today inspires the distinctive, personalized service found at all Dusit Hotels and Resorts worldwide. In 2018 the hotel will be redeveloped as part of a mixed-use development designed to create a new landmark for a new era of tourism. The hotel's last day of operations in its current form is 16 April 2018. The new hotel will open in late 2021.
