

MORE THAN 50 FREE-FLOW BEERS ON TAP FOR BEER REPUBLIC BIRTHDAY BASH

Beer Republic's Birthday Free-flow Bonanza with more than 50 free-flow beers on tap

Beer Republic is celebrating its 1st birthday on Saturday 15 December with the best free-flow selection of tap beers ever seen in Thailand.

For an entry price of only Baht 1000 net, birthday revelers will be handed their own Beer Republic Birthday Glass to fill up as many times as they wish from our free-flow list.

To keep you nourished, a chargrilled burger pop-up and our usual Beer Republic bites will be available throughout the evening.

The birthday beer bash starts at 17.00 and runs through to 23.00 hours.

Tickets are available at Beer Republic, Beerrepublicbangkok.com or Event pop

About Beer Republic

LOCATION:

Bedecked in all the subdued but ubiquitous majesty of 1920's industrial chic, locals and visitor alike are in for a treat. Centrally located just off of Chit Lom BTS, the heart of Bangkok's luxe district, this is the place to be seen.

LIBATIONS:

With a large selection of over 100 beers alone and a generous array of other beverages, we're clearly not holding back when it comes to satisfying your thirst. There is a fantastic array of beers that it is certain anyone, from the rookie to the connoisseur, can definitely find something to hit that sweet spot. If you know your Pale Ales from your Pilsners, Marzens from your Saisons, then come try our selection, chat with our beerologist and hone your knowledge of craft beer.

THE FOOD:

Think perfectly executed comfort food, but kind to your wallet. Here, the best of locally sourced Thai and European classics, are sure to impress. Michelin may have landed in Bangkok but good, honest and more importantly delicious food reigns king! Ask for a beer and food pairing recommendation and our staff will show you how good beer is when paired with a meal.

ATMOSPHERE:

With so much competition, it's hard to find a place that you can visit again and again. Cue Beer Republic. Think of us as your new local. So, whether you're in for a quick sneaky one, a celebratory catch-up with your mates, or a low-key date, we've got you covered. Staffed by beer enthusiasts, you're definitely in safe hands when it comes to our beer and food pairings.

“The difference with Beer Republic is that we are affordable, but we’re not going to sacrifice on the service or the quality. Our staff are knowledgeable and they have been training for several months now on beer styles, how beer is made and how the change in ingredients can affect the style and the aromas you get from the beer...we want to showcase those (beers) at Beer Republic in a lively and social atmosphere, amongst good friends and with great food and beer.” – Daniel Thom, Beer Master at Beer Republic.
