New sports courts now open

On Friday 10th August, The Olympic Fitness Club at Pathumwan Princess Hotel was delighted to reopen its refurbished tennis court which has been totally relayed using a sand base and state-of-the art, top quality, artificial grass. This is part of a significant investment at The Olympic Fitness Club, with also includes a brand new badminton court.

The Club is the largest hotel-based fitness center in Bangkok and boasts superb facilities including 9,000 sq. m. of expertly designed space and a half Olympic-size saltwater swimming pool.

The official reopening was attended by Khun Arthorn Vanasantakul, Managing Director of MBK Hotel and Tourism Co. Ltd, Mr Stefan Heintze, the hotel's General Manager and VIP guests from The Crown Company, located in the Maldives.
