Oktoberfest arrives in Bangkok with The World’s German-themed buffet, Centara Grand at CentralWorld

To celebrate this year’s Oktoberfest, The World restaurant, Centara Grand & Bangkok Convention Centre at CentralWorld is throwing a series of Oktoberfest-themed buffet nights throughout the month of… you guessed it… October!

Every Friday night, take your pick from The World’s full range of German treats, including freshly-made salads, five different types of imported sausage, cold cuts and chilled platters.

The star of the show, however, has to be our all-you-can-eat Carving Board selection. This features Whole Suckling Pig, Smoked Pork Loin Kassler, Crispy Pork Knuckle with Meatloaf, Roast Duck and more – all fresh from the oven.

Of course, it’s not Oktoberfest without beer, which is why we are including free-flow Paulaner (on tap) as part of this special buffet deal.

This promotion is available every Friday night from October to November 2017, 18.00 – 22.30 hrs. The price is THB 1,890++ per person with free flow of Paulaner Draught beer.
