

Pagoda Chinese Restaurant Unveils Mooncake Collection, Blending Timeless Elegance with Contemporary Style

Bangkok, Thailand, 23 July 2020 - Bangkok Marriott Marquis Queen's Park is celebrating the magic of the Mid-Autumn Festival with the launch of an exclusive selection of handcrafted mooncakes - the perfect gift for your friends, family or colleagues at this auspicious time of year.

Available at Pagoda Chinese Restaurant, the new mooncake collection blends authenticity with modernity - and a twist of creativity. Our expert Chinese chefs have used premium ingredients to craft a range of traditional baked mooncakes. Choose from classic flavors and fillings such as white lotus seed and macadamia nuts, pork bak-kwa and assorted nuts, white lotus and melon seeds with a single yolk, and Chanthaburi durian and white lotus seeds with an egg yolk.

For something truly special, our unique signature varieties include rich and creamy salted egg yolk vanilla custard, or our decadent malted chocolate Rocher mooncake, which is made using the finest French Valrhona chocolate and almond praline.

Each 150g traditional mooncake can be purchased individually or in a box of four. Our 50g signature mooncakes come in boxes of six, creating a wonderful present for the person you love or respect. Can't decide which to choose? Try an assorted box of four traditional or signature varieties! Every stylish box features a contemporary hexagonal design with a gold foil stamp, and can even be adorned with your company's logo to make an outstanding gift for your business partners.
