Royal Cliff breaks previous attendance record for the Halloween Family Party of the Year

Pattaya, Thailand – Royal Cliff Hotels Group once again delighted both young and old alike with its spooktacular family-friendly Halloween party that was recently held at its newly refurbished Panorama –Dramatic Atmosphere at the Royal Cliff Beach Hotel.

Inspired by Disney Pixar's "Coco" and vibrantly decked out in the spirit of the Dia de los Muertes (Day of the Dead) fiesta, Parents and their little ones in amazing Halloween costumes enjoyed the festive feel Halloween décor while dining on delicious Halloween-inspired dishes such as the fun Spider Stew, Devils' Fireballs, The Witches' Soup, Dark Delight Mousse as well as an array of creative Vampire mocktails and cocktails!

Families enjoyed a variety of entertaining activities such as amazing dance entertainment from Let's Dance Studio – Pattaya, fun face-painting, photos with fun Halloween cut outs and trying their luck in the new Haunted Wishing Tree and Glow in the Dark Ring Toss.

Little faces were alight with excitement as young guests tried to win lots of fun prizes ranging from loot bags filled with delightful toys and goodies to fun Halloween stickers during the spooky games. Mrs. Panga Vathanakul, the Managing Director of Royal Cliff Hotels Group, Mr. Vitanart Vathanakul, the CEO of Royal Cliff Hotels Group and Mr. Prem Calais, the General Manager of the Royal Cliff Hotels Group joined in the Halloween fun by awarding the 4 winners of the Best in Halloween Costume contest and the 5 winners of this year's exciting lucky draw.
