Royal Cliff Hotels Group Annual Donation to the Father Ray Foundation and Pattaya Orphanage

Pattaya, Thailand – As part of the company's Corporate Social Responsibility Program, the Royal Cliff Hotels Group continually helps out the local communities and those in need. Recently, the Senior Management of the Royal Cliff Hotels Group warmly welcomed representatives from the Father Ray Foundation and Pattaya Orphanage who came to receive a generous charitable donation from the company.

Mrs. Panga Vathanakul, Managing Director of Royal Cliff Hotels Group and Mr. Vitanart Vathanakul, CEO of Royal Cliff Hotels Group presented a generous donation of 400,000 Baht to the Pattaya Orphanage and another 400,000 Baht to the Father Ray Foundation. Fr. Peter Pattarapong Srivorakul C.Ss.R., President and Director of Father Ray Day Care Center, Sr. Pavinee Pichaisrisawadi, IJ., Manager of Pattaya Redemptorist Technological College for People with Disabilities and the Pattaya Orphanage team were delighted to receive such contributions that can help reduce the foundations' monthly expenses and contribute to the improvement of the children's' welfare.

Father Ray began caring for and educating Thailand's orphaned babies, disabled individuals and abandoned children in 1974. Today, there are 6 centers running programs under Father Ray Foundation, 5 in Pattaya and 1 in Nong Khai, Northeastern Thailand. Established in 1978, The Pattaya Orphanage currently takes care of approximately 160 orphans, ranging from newborn to studying at the university level. The organization cares for poor orphans and provides lodging, food and education services without limitation in race and religion.
