

Royal Orchid Sheraton supports worldwide earth hour movement for the environment by going dark for one hour

Royal Orchid Sheraton Hotel & Towers went dark for one hour on March 30 by switching off unnecessary electronics and lights in the hotel for one hour to shine a light on climate action in support of Earth Hour 2019 and to illuminate a powerful message about environmental awareness and action. The hotel also invited guests to enjoy mini concert and special canapés and cocktails under the candlelight.