Sasin partners with SHRM For world-class Human Resource Development programs and networks

Sasin partners with SHRM
For world-class Human Resource Development programs and networks

Sasin School of Management recently signed an MoU with Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), the largest HR professional organization in the world with 300,000 members in over 165 countries. Through this partnership, SHRM and SASIN will offer professional development programs, knowledge events, and accreditation opportunities for HR professionals in Thailand, Laos, & Cambodia.

Professor Ian Fenwick, Director of Sasin, and Dr. Alexander Alonso, Chief Knowledge Officer, SHRM, signed the MOU during a virtual signing ceremony. They were joined by Sasin Deputy Director Chaipong Pongpanich, Chulalongkorn University Vice President Supaporn Chanchamroen, and CEO of SHRM India and the Business Head of Asia Pacific and MENA, Achal Khanna.

The first Sasin and SHRM's HR Management program (Advanced Diploma in HR Management) will be launched later this month at www.sasin.edu.