About Body Conscious at Y Wellness

BodyConscious at Y Wellness, a wellness solution for a happier and healthier world, provides effective and proven programs for long-term weight loss and permanent health improvement via treatments and educational tools. Y Wellness is located in Column Tower, Sukhumvit 16.

At BodyConscious we believe that our day-to-day visible state of health is just the tip of the iceberg; lying beneath the surface is the massive body of the iceberg – and it is composed of our lifestyle and behaviour, our psychology and motivation, and our spiritual and/or cultural sense (or pursuit) of meaning. In this regard, we can derive that wellness is never static, and that what we do every day matters.

Our in-house wellness specialists at Y Wellness focus on functional medicine (blood analysis/IV/colonic), traditional Chinese medicine, naturopathic medicine, and advanced postural/functional analyses with 3D body scanning and imaging.

The facility is a one-stop centre for young and old alike. Services will go beyond the immediate improvement of the physical body, teaching guests through knowledge-sharing how to improve their overall look, vitality and health condition through easy-to-adopt practices.

All programs will be guided by fully qualified naturopathic doctors, and include such services as nutritional guidance, colonics, IV infusions, infrared, fast-track to fitness, Chinese medicine and spa treatments.

Our professional team at Y Wellness is excited about this compelling new venture, and we can’t wait to share even more details and special offers with you in due course. Call today for a free consultation (Thailand) on 02 714 1189, or email us directly to book an appointment.
