

SOMERSET EKAMAI BANGKOK INVITES ITS LINK CLUB MEMBERS TO SHAKE OFF THE HEAT WITH A REFRESHING COCKTAIL AND MOCKTAIL WORKSHOP

Bangkok, Thailand, 25th July 2017 - The Ascott Limited (Thailand) has recently arranged an exclusive cocktail and mocktail making workshop for its supporting corporate clients, The Link Club members at Somerset Ekamai Bangkok, one of the Ascott's exquisite serviced residences located on Ekamai, Sukhumvit Road.

The participating members were treated with dinner buffet before joining the workshop station. Mr. Jason Chen, General Manager, Somerset Ekamai Bangkok took the opportunity to thank them for their supports during the year. Every participating member received a chance to win valuable lucky-draw prizes at the event including, vouchers to experience staying at Somerset Ekamai and many more.

This workshop was exclusively conducted by a professional mixologist guest, Khun Aphinan Siripun (Ae) - Manager from CocktailThai and his team. Besides learning the art of mixology, all members also had a chance to taste their concoctions along the way. In addition, all attendees received 'The Link Club Shaker' as a special giveaway for making the drinks they learnt at home.

The Link Club (TLC) is an Ascott reward programme offering top corporate clients a delightful selection of benefits and treats including a wide range of enticing rewards through various corporate appreciation events and personalised workshops.
