

SOMERSET PARK SUANPLU BANGKOK ARRANGES DIY LUXURIOUS BODY SCRUB WORKSHOP FOR ITS LINKCLUB MEMBERS

Bangkok, Thailand, 29th August 2018 - The Ascott Limited (Thailand) has recently arranged an exclusive 'DIY Luxurious Body Scrub' workshop for its supporting corporate clients, The Link Club members, at Somerset Park Suanplu Bangkok. Somerset Park Suanplu is one of Ascott's exquisite serviced residences located on Suanplu and Sathorn area.

At the event, Mr. Koen Vermeersch, General Manager of Somerset Park Suanplu and Area Manager of Thailand took the opportunity to thank the members for their great support throughout the year. Each member received a chance to win valuable lucky-draw prizes, including vouchers to experience staying at Somerset Park Suanplu and gift vouchers for food and dessert at various well-known restaurants.

This workshop was exclusively conducted by a professional spa trainer, Khun Sunai Wachirawarakarn - Managing Director from Arom D artisan spa and his team. Besides learning the art of crystal hand spa and learning how to massage by practicing with each other in this class, all members also had a chance to make the body scrub products. All attendees also received 'The Link Club Cosmetics Pouch' as a special giveaway.

The Link Club (TLC) is an Ascott reward programme offering top corporate clients a delightful selection of benefits and treats including a wide range of enticing rewards through various corporate appreciation events and personalized workshops.
