THAI Smile expands new routes, Bangkok-Hong Kong and Phuket-Hong Kong with daily services from October 28th onwards

THAI Smile expands new routes, Bangkok-Hong Kong and Phuket-Hong Kong with daily services from October 28th onwards

THAI Smile continues to expand its international routes. Recently, it has launched a new route from Bangkok – Hong Kong (BKK-HKG) and Phuket – Hong Kong (HKT-HKG) to reinforce its position as the region's leading full service airline with the world-class aviation standards and excellent services. Passengers will have an opportunity to travel to Hong Kong, the world's most famous seaport with diversity of sightseeing and activities like Hong Kong Disneyland, Yick Fat Building from the Transformers, witness A Symphony of Lights on Victoria Harbour, Nong Ping sky basket ride, paying homage to the great Tian Tan Buddha, shopping at the well-known Nathan Road, tasting at the Michelin Star Restaurant, Dim Sum and fresh seafood at Sai Kung or the delicious street food in Tsim Sha Tsui.

The flight from Bangkok to Hong Kong starts at 3,540 Baht / person / trip (all inclusive) and Phuket-Hong Kong flight starts at 4,170 Baht / person / trip (all inclusive). All in all, it comes with full service, free seating, free food service, luggage loading of 20kg in the Smile Class (Economy Class) and earns a Royal Orchid point. The flight will be operated under the codeshare with Thai Airways. More details and reservations are now available at Smile Call Center 1181 or 02-118-8888 Smile Service Center and THAI Smile Flight Ticketing Agent nationwide. Travel starts on October 28th onwards. Fly with the best airlines in Asia, Thailand's number 1 airline with the Excellent Seat in Economy Class Award in Asia from TripAdvisor Travelers' Choice Awards 2018.