THAI Smile flies cave rescue heroes back home International volunteers start to return home and thank Thai people for heartwarming kindness.

THAI Smile Airways has welcomed and arranged flights for eight volunteers from the Peaceland Foundation, from the People’s Republic of China, who flew from Beijing, Chongqing and Changsha. They depart from Mae Fah Luang Airport, Chiang Rai province To Suvarnabhumi Airport and travel further to Chongqing and Changsha, China with THAI Smile. To facilitate the operational teams and volunteers, THAI Smile also sponsors 200 flight tickets through the Chiang Rai governor’s office so that they can fly on Chiang Rai – Bangkok flight and other domestic flights operated by THAI Smile. Members of the operational teams and volunteers wishing to receive a flight ticket please contact Chiang Rai Province office call 053-150-180, 053-177-348, 053-177-336. For more information, please contact the Thai Smile Call Center 1181 or 0-2118-8888.
