THAI Smile joins hands with S&P to serve vegetarian dishes onboard Vegetarian recipes available throughout the Festival, from 9 to 17 October

THAI Smile Airways is cooperating with one of the country's most favorite food brands, S&P, to celebrate this year's Chinese Vegetarian Festival with specially created inflight meals. THAI Smile X S&P menu items including tasty ready-to-reheat meals and savory desserts will be made available to all THAI Smile passengers on every domestic and international flight during the festival, from 9 to 17 October 2018.

Smile Plus passengers on domestic flights will be impressed with Vegan Fried Quinoa Rice with Chestnut and Cereals (featuring Thai jasmine rice in perfect combination with Peruvian red quinoa), Vegan Thai Jasmine Rice with Umenohana Tofu (using Japanese authentic Umenohana tofu), Vegan Yakisoba and Vegan Fried Purple Potato Soba Noodles. For Smile Class passengers on domestic flights will be enjoyed with (Vegan Pad Thai With Umenohana) and (Vegan Quinoa Sticky Rice with Fried Mushroom). Special sweet treats are available on both domestic and international flights, include Vegan Chocolate & Avocado Cake and Vegan Matcha Tonyu Pudding (made from Japanese tonyo soy milk from Umenohana Shop).

All THAI Smile X S&P vegetarian menu items are meticulously created using carefully selected ingredients to ensure the Chinese authentic vegetarian taste and tradition. Depending on flight operating time, this festive offer is applicable on all flights and in all classes (except WE177, WE694, WE695 and WE290) to keep all passengers physically and spiritually satisfied.
