

THAI Smile launches daily direct flights from Bangkok to Guangzhou

THAI Smile launches daily direct flights from Bangkok to Guangzhou

THAI SMILE launches new Bangkok-Guangzhou route, the capital of Guangdong. True to its history as a trading port for more than 1,000 years, Guangzhou was among the first cities to open up to the rest of the world in modern China. Known as China's 'South Gate', Guangzhou has a strategic location at the heart of the Pearl River Delta. Its importance as the capital of the historically powerful province of Guangdong makes it the centre of politics, economy and culture for South China. The city offers sights and attractions for everyone. Here are the must-visit attractions in the City of Five Rams; The Five Rams Sculpture, Dr Sun Yat-sen Memorial Hall, Shamian Island, Temple of the Six Banyan Trees, The Pearl River and many more. The ticket price is value for money starting at 3,750 baht / trip / person (all inclusive). Book your ticket now and fly from July 1, 2018 onwards. Make a reservation now via www.thaismileair.com, Smile Call Center 1181 or 02-118-8888 and all Smile Agents nationwide.