Thailand-Australia Joint Research Meeting on Nanomaterial for Renewable Energy and Nanobiotechnology At Dusit Thani Bangkok

Dr. Wannee Chinsirikul, Executive Director of National Nanotechnology Center (NANOTEC) was the guest of honour at Thailand-Australia Joint Research Meeting on Nanomaterial for Renewable Energy and Nanobiotechnology held at Napalai room of Dusit Thani Bangkok. This event was well attended by the delegates from Thailand and Australia.

Picture shows: (Seated row from Left) Prof. Supapan Seraphin, Advisor of NANOTEC; Assoc. Prof. Dr. Chanwit Tribuddharat, Vice President of National Science and Technology Development Agency (NSTDA); Prof. Istvan Toth, Chair in Biological Chemistry, University of Queensland; Dr. Wannee Chinsirikul; Prof. Tony Moon, Emeritus Professor, Office of the Provost and Senior Vice-President, University of Technology Sydney; Prof. David Lewis, Director of Flinders Nanotechnology, Flinders University; Watinee Kharnwong, Director (Education) of Australian Government Department of Education and Training and Dr. Uracha Ruktanonchai, Deputy Executive Director of NANOTEC