Thailand’s 9th National Conference on Collective Action against Corruption

Dr. Panas Simasathien, Chairman of Thailand’s Private Sector Collective Action Coalition against Corruption (CAC) was the guest of honour at the opening ceremony of Thailand’s 9th National Conference on Collective Action against Corruption in the topic of “Disrupting Corruption”, held at Napalai Ballroom of Dusit Thani Bangkok. At the event, there are jointly signed a memorandum of understanding (MOU) with the CAC to support Thai Anti-Corruption Initiative by Danish-Thai Chamber of Commerce, Thai-Norwegian Chamber of Commerce, Thai-Swedish Chamber of Commerce and Thai-Finnish Chamber of Commerce. This event was well attended by H.E. Mrs. Satu Suikkari-Kleven, Ambassador of the Republic of Finland to Thailand and honorary guests.

Picture shows: (from Left) Dr. Supareak Charlie Chomchan, President of Danish-Thai Chamber of Commerce; Antti Aromaki, Vice President of Thai-Finnish Chamber of Commerce; Aina Eidsvik, President of Thai-Norwegian Chamber of Commerce; Tor Haug, Chargé d’ Affaires of Kingdom of Norway to Thailand; H.E. Mrs. Satu Suikkari-Kleven; Dr. Panas Simasathien; Eric Hallin, President of Thai-Swedish Chamber of Commerce and Chaiwat Utaiwan, Acting President & CEO of Thai Institute of Directors (IOD)