THE BARAI Wins ‘Outstanding Performance Resort/Spa’ At Thailand Tourism Award 2015

Hua Hin, Thailand – THE BARAI, an award winning residential spa, added another ‘cap to its feather’ by voted as the ‘Outstanding Performance Resort / Spa’ from the 10th Thailand Tourism Award under the Health Tourism category.

“We are honored and delighted to be selected once again as the Outstanding Performance Resort and Spa by Tourism Authority of Thailand. THE BARAI is dedicated to provide an authentic spa experience to our customers. This award is recognition of our efforts and passion to consistently extending a high standard of the true luxury and elegance spa resort. I also would like to thank THE BARAI team for their effort and commitment to make THE BARAI a leading residential spa in Thailand as it is today”, said Mr. Sammy Carolus, General Manager of Hyatt Regency Hua Hin and THE BARAI.

Also known as Kinnaree Award in Thai, the Thailand Tourism Award is part of The Tourism Authority of Thailand’s ongoing efforts to upgrade and enhance the standards of the kingdom’s tourist destinations, to promote creativity, to encourage environmentally-friendly tourism practices, as well as to ensure the Thai Tourism and hospitality industry’s competitiveness within ASEAN.

Additionally, since THE BARAI opened in 2007, it has earned a sterling reputation and prestigious recognition from many leading international publications including TTG Awards and Spa Asia Crystal Awards.
