The World Is Your Front Page at Chatrium Hotel Royal Lake Yangon

No matter where your travels may take you, from the highest mountain peaks to the densest jungles and beyond, staying in touch with the many happenings in the world outside is part and parcel of the 21st Century globetrotter's package alongside the mosquito ointment and trusty travel guide.

And now discerning guests at Yangon's premier luxury property, the multiple award-winning Chatrium Hotel Royal Lake Yangon, can keep their finger on the pulse 24 hours a day while spending their time engaging in the fine art of simply taking it easy in opulent 5-star comfort.

Every guest will have complimentary access to a wide and varied global selection of newspapers in a number of languages, an eco-friendly and convenient way for guests to access their favorite local and international newspapers online via their smartphone, tablet or eReader device.

To access the service, guest can simply connect to the hotel's Wi-Fi and then select their chosen country, language and publication. The service will be available in all Wi-Fi accessible areas in Chatrium Hotel Royal Lake Yangon so what better way to start your day than by catching up on the latest headlines while lounging in bed after a perfect night's sleep or learning the hottest showbiz gossip as you top up your tan by the gently rippling pool?

Online newspapers and magazines are today's "must have" amenity, as not only are they at the cutting edge of technology and convenience but are the perfect partner for Chatrium's 'Live the Remarkable' brand slogan and dedication to guest service, fully embracing the group's 'Think First Think Earth' campaign to keep our use of the world's natural resources to a minimum.
